Dear Mr

Thank you for your email.

I am sorry that workload pressures at this Office have led to delays in writing to you further. I can advise however that we have now completed consultations with the Privacy Commissioner in respect of the final ground of complaint 42 2 (as required by the Official Information Act). The next step in the investigation is for the Ombudsman to form a provisional opinion. While I am unable to give an exact timeframe, I would anticipate that you will receive further correspondence from this Office within the next 4 – 6 weeks.

Kind regards

C L
