Dear Mi

I write further to your Official Information Act request of 27 September 2016, requesting information regarding services to Work and Income clients with mental health issues.

After consultation with the Office of the Ombudsman, the Ministry is now providing a further document in response to your request.

The Guide for Designated Doctors is attached. Please note that this Guide was printed in July 2008. This document is now out-of-date, as illustrated by references to old benefit types that have since changed.

I trust this information is helpful.

Kind regards

M
